Roxanna Rodriguez named Cadet of the year for 2007

Sheriff's Cadet
Roxanna Rodriguez

Roxanna Marina Rodriguez was recently named Sheriff's Cadet of the year for 2007.

Roxanna was born and raised in Mission Hills, California. She graduated from Santa Rosa De Lima Catholic Elementary School where she participated in various activities. Roxanna served as an alter server at the church for six years and was involved in all aspects of her Catholic Church's Sacraments. She was student council secretary and received an Honor's Scholarship while graduating as a Principle and Scholastic Honor Student in June 2001.

Roxanna graduated from John Kennedy High School in 2005 with honors receiving the distinguished gold medalion of the Magnet Program.

Roxanna has always had an interest and aptitude in the law-enforcement field. She is currently an Administration of Justice major at Mission College maintaining a 3.0 GPA. She will be graduating with her AA degree from Mission College in June of 2008 and will be pursuing her BA degree from Cal State LA in Criminal Justice.

Roxanna has been employed as a Cadet with the Sheriff's Office at Mission College since June of 2006. In addition to working 30 hours per week as a cadet she also worked an additional 20 hours per week in the food service industry while maintaining a full time school curriculum. Regardless of her school and work demands, Roxanna excels in all of her endeavors. In the Spring of 2007 she was selected as the Cadet of the Semester and Cadet of the Year for 2007 at Mission College.

Roxanna has received numerous commendations for her leadership role as a cadet at Mission College. Her diligence to duty has been a contributing factor in Mission College's reputation as a safe and friendly campus.

Los Angeles County Coroner office gift shop

For those folks you are looking for something unusual to give as a gift, look no further. The Los Angeles County Coroners office has a gift shop open to the public with hundreds of unusual items for sale. Items include beach towels with the outline of a dead body to t-shirts with the coroner logo on it.

Profits from the gift shop go to fund the Youthful Drunk Driving Visitation program where young people who are arrested for drunk driving are exposed to a visit to the coroner's office where they see the realities of their actions. The hope is to divert them away from future like behavior.

The gift shop is open Monday thru Friday from 8:30am to 4:30pm. They are located at 1104 N. Mission Road near downtown L.A. They can be reached at 323-343-0760 or at their website www.lacoroner.com

Administration of Justice fund raising raffle April 21

The Administration of Justice program is holding its first fund raising raffle on April 21, 2008 at 3pm in the Campus Center room#5 immediately following the forensic anthropology seminar.

Items raffled off will include AJ shirts, FBI gifts, clothing from the coroners office and dinner tickets from "Rubios".

Proceeds from the raffle will go to the Administration of Justice Trust Fund which will be used to support students in the program.

Tickets are available for $1 each and 6 for $5. Winners must be present during the drawing. There is no limit on the amount of tickets an individual can purchase.

For tickets, see Professor Enos, Lunn or LaFlamme.
