Cal State L.A. courses offered this summer at Mission

This summer the Administration of Justice program will offer several courses that articulate to both Cal State L.A. and CSUN.

The following courses offered this summer articulate directly to Cal State L.A.'s criminal justice program:

AJ 1, AJ2, AJ4, AJ75 and AJ160.

The following course articulates directly to CSUN's Sociology program: AJ1.

By taking these courses here at Mission, this is a savings of several thousand dollars in tuition costs.

Students will also have the ability to finish all of the lower division requirements for Cal State L.A.'s criminal justice B.S. degree while still here at Mission working on their A.S. degree.

United States Secret Service is hiring High school grads

The U.S. Secret Service is currently hiring for the position of Officer which only requires a high school diploma.

The Uniformed Division Officers of the U.S. Secret Service are responsible for protecting the White house, Vice President's residence, treasury building and foreign diplomatic missions and embassies in the Washington D.C. area. They are also responsible for protecting former presidents and their immediate families. Uniformed division officers also travel with the president and vice president.

Qualifications are U.S. citizenship, at least 21 years of age with a high school diploma. Positions are only available in the Washington D.C. area. For more information, go to their website at www.secretservice.gov

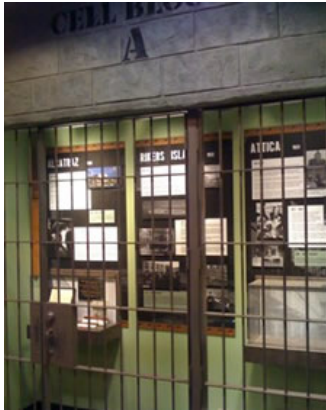

National Museum of Crime and Punishment now open

The National Museum of Crime and Punishment is now open in Washington D.C.

The Museum was a collaboration between John Walsh from America's Most Wanted and several other groups around the country. The museum offers visitors a chance to see the history of crime and punishment in America as well as several interactive exhibits.

There is a CSI section where visitors can view a crime scene and help solve the crime. There are other exhibits such as visitors taking a lie detector test, using a police pursuit simulator and having their mug shots taken. Check out their website at crimemuseum.org

Administration of Justice shirts are here!
