English 101 (7991)
(UC: CSU) 3 Units

College Reading and Composition I

This is the first freshman composition course that meets requirements for the BA at four-year colleges and universities. This course develops proficiency in critical reading and writing through the application of the principles of rhetoric and the techniques of critical thinking. Students will write expository essays based on college-level readings. Emphasis is placed on the research paper.

The Weekend College classes combine video lessons and online activities with weekend class meetings. You should complete all three components to successfully pass the class. The course requirements are in the online syllabus. If you have questions contact your instructor via email or by telephone during their office hours listed above.

You can find the broadcast schedules on the back of this page.

Dear Students:

Welcome to English 101. In this class we will explore intellectually stimulating material to develop you as a critical thinker, critical reader and powerful writer. The material moves from the personal to the global and from the past to the future. This class contains multiple methods of instruction – classroom instruction and discussion, online discussion and components, and video lessons. You must complete all components, not only to pass this class, but also to get the most benefit from the experience.

I also welcome you with the understanding that you are at the center of this class. Therefore, take this opportunity to not only complete a class, but also to explore yourself intellectually. Writing, like life, is a process that requires work and commitment for growth. I am committed to helping you in this process.

After you read this, please complete the following before our first class:

- Download and bring to the first class the syllabus, the Research Essay criteria and the Stylistic Differences module.
- Post an introduction to yourself in the ETUDES Class Discussion forum under the topic Class Introductions. Please include your full name, reason for taking the class, interests and favorite book. Then post a reply to one other student.
- Complete the assignment in which you must bring to the first class the etymology of a specific term or concept. Please take time to deeply consider this initial assignment. This is not only the foundation for the research essay, but it is also an opportunity to gain insight into an important aspect of existence. Therefore, I encourage you to choose a concept that is important to you. It should be a concept you personally want to explore in greater depth and that will take you on an intellectual and spiritual journey.
- Finally, make sure you visit ETUDES to complete the remaining assignments for Week 1.

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns. It is best to contact me through the following email, stellam@lamission.edu. In the subject area of your email, write in all caps “ENGL 101.”

See you in class.
