Interview Tips

- Dress For Success
  - A good first impression will go a long way, so be sure to dress appropriately for your interview. This means no jeans, T-shirts, sneakers, sandals, or anything revealing.
  - A professional look will show your employer that you take your work seriously.

- Check Out The Company
  - By researching the company, you give yourself the advantage of showing the interviewer that you have a deep interest in working at their company.
  - It will also give you an edge against those who walk into an interview without having looked up the company and what it is that they do.
  - It might prove helpful to have a few specific questions to ask about the company.

- Improve Your Interview Technique
  - Knowing what to say is key in acing an interview.
  - Know what is on your resume and be ready to discuss why your experiences qualify you for this job.
  - Be prepared to state why you are interested in the company.
  - Don’t use slang; speak clearly and confidently.
  - If necessary, take time to think about a question before answering.
  - Listen to the interviewer; it is easy to get distracted.

- Do’s And Don’ts
  - Do not talk on your phone, text, or listen to music in the waiting room.
  - Do not walk into an interview chewing gum or drinking coffee.
  - Do not talk too much. Be prepared to answer questions, but only share what is needed for the interviewer to get a glimpse of what kind of a worker you are.
  - Do not speak badly of past employers.
  - Do wear deodorant, but not too much perfume or cologne.
  - Do practice interviewing.
  - Do arrive 10 minutes before your interview time. However, do not arrive any earlier because it can disrupt the interviewer’s schedule.
  - Do remain calm.

- Take The Time To Say Thank You
  - Sending a thank you letter or email is not only good interview etiquette, but it further reinforces your interest in the position.
  - Be sure that this email or letter does not contain any spelling or grammar errors.
