Subject-Verb Agreement Worksheet

Choose the correct verb that matches the subject for each sentence.

1. The popularity of frozen yogurt (seem/seems) to be increasing in today’s world.
2. The number of video rental stores (seem/seems) to be decreasing.
3. During class discussions, an individual who (is/are) critical of a text that other classmates (like/likes) (has/have) to be careful not to hurt anyone’s feelings.
4. There (is/are) now hundreds of classic books available online for free.
5. One advantage of social networking websites (is/are) that they can link groups of friends who (want/wants) to reconnect with each other but who (do/does) not live near each other.
6. Netflix, along with Redbox, (provides/provide) cheap movie rental options.
7. Either the library or bookstores (has/have) Shakespeare plays.
8. Neither bookstores nor the library (has/have) the book I want.

Fill in the blank with a verb that matches the subject of each sentence.

1. Action adventures and romantic comedies ________ two of my favorite kinds of movies.
2. The pair of scissors you bought ________ really sharp!
3. The novel about alien invasions in the U.S. ________ been made into a movie.
4. The girl, not her brother, ________ an avid reader.
5. A child who ________ to read books and whose parents encourage reading ________ better in school.
6. Either bookstores or the library ________ Shakespeare plays.
7. Neither the library nor the bookstores ________ the book I want.
8. Either Mary or I ________ going to the store today.